

The COVID-19 Educator Pulse Check

Educator Sentiment During COVID-19

In April 2020, we surveyed Administrators and Teachers to get a sense of how they were coping as most every school moved to a remote teaching environment. We heard from over 2,000 educators and they shared their thoughts and feelings in the moment. Learn more in "What do educators need right now?"

RESPONDENT PROFILE

EDUCATORS TOP 3 REMOTE TEACHING CHALLENGES

Administrators report Top 3 REMOTE TEACHING CHALLENGES for their teachers

31%

Teacher juggling teaching with "at-home" responsibilities

27%

Students aren't engaged

11%

Students don't have access to devices/connectivity

Teachers report their Top 3 REMOTE TEACHING CHALLENGES

22%

Juggling teaching with "at-home" responsibilities

20%

Home connectivity for students

16%

Lack of training

EDUCATORS' REMOTE TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Remote Teaching Tools PROVIDED by District/School

57%

Remote training

72%

Online resources

59%

Online learning platform

59%

Free devices for students

Teachers say they NEED THESE TOOLS to continue to engage students via remote teaching

53%

More training

46%

Recognition from their district, parents, and the community that they are working hard to do a good job during these challenging circumstances

48%

Tips for engaging parents

SUPPORT EDUCATORS NEEDS MOVING FORWARD

Administrators say they could use free HELP from educational companies with...

63%

Home connectivity for students

43%

Remote learning resources

34%

Remote learning technology

29%

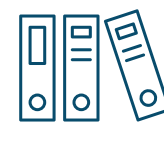

Deeply discounted devices

Administrators think the LONG-TERM IMPACT on the way their schools/districts approach learning will be...

68%

More training for our teachers on delivering online learning/teaching with technology

62%

More robust plans for learning during a crisis

39%

More investment in online learning platforms, devices, and home connectivity for students

Source: WeAreTeachers/School Leaders Now Survey, April 2020

in Follow MDR

Follow @MDRBiz • MDReducation.com • 800-333-8802

