

A Look at CARES K-12 Education Funding by State, District, and Student Allocations

For back-to-school 2020-2021, schools are facing new demands on their budgets for everything from technology and professional development to the cost of sanitizing buildings and providing personal protective equipment (PPE). The Federal Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act, passed in March 2020, includes money that can be used for these unanticipated expenditures.

As you plan your outreach to schools, here are FIVE perspectives on how that money is being allocated across the country.
